

Contents

Introduction

What are mollusks?

mollusk • shellfish • bivalves • cephalopods • nudibranchs • primitive • land shells • fossils • conchology

How shells live

oysters • scallops and moonshells • limpet shells are built • high culture and nature • strange forms of camouflage • hermit crabs have • true color methods used

Where shells live

bottoms of the sea by shores • the coral reefs • the sandy bays • the mangroves • the rapid streams • the depths

8

Evolution of shells

lyric shells • ancient snailshells • evolution of the bivalves • fossil cephalopods

9

Against the world for shells

Japan • Australia • South Africa • Thailand • Portugal • Hawaiian Islands • New England • West Indies • New Zealand • Philippines

10

Habits of shells

giant clams • carrier shells • sea fan shells • the lively scallop • nest-building clams • boring clams • tibia shells and other encrusters • venomous cones • the chambered nautilus • nudibranchs • the naked snails

11

Collecting shells

where to look • how to watch mollusks • how to catch shells • how to clean and preserve specimens • beginners' and advanced shell collections • the professional museum collection

12

Collector's items

rare shells of yesterday and today • African, Pacific, American volutes • cones • cowries • murex shells • spider and strombus conchs • slit, harp and vase shells • thorny oysters • scallop shells

13

Shells through the ages

shells and primitive man • shells as money throughout the world • royal tyrian purple • Pinna and the Golden Fleece • shells in religion, in ancient art, in medieval art • shells in the Renaissance • scallops in heraldry

14

The uses of shells today

edible oysters, clams, scallops • edible mussels, whelks, conchs, cephalopods • early story of the pearl • biology of the pearl • cultured pearls • harmful and medicinal mollusks • mollusks and pollution • shells and psychiatry

15

Shells and the connoisseur

early shell art • today's shell art and jewelry • voyages for shells • famous shell collectors • famous malacologists • shell books, auctions, shows

Guide to the seashell literature

Index

Credits

OPPOSITE: Australian tridacnid swarm over marine vegetation. X 3.